MEDIA ADVISORY

HUGE, FREE NEW YEAR'S EVE CELEBRATION IN FALLS CHURCH CITY WATCH NIGHT 2004

FALLS CHURCH, VA. – West Broad Street will again be filled on New Year's Eve with the giant outdoor Karaoke Stage, Performance Tent, Moon Bounce and Rock Climbing Wall. Thousands of residents are expected to celebrate the 7th Annual City of Falls Church Watch Night, one of the few free and open-to-the-public celebrations in the region. From 8:00 pm to midnight. The 100 block of West Broad Street is closed to traffic and 10 venues (mostly indoors) provide FREE entertainment. The variety of entertainment is planned to appeal all ages and is mostly participatory. Swing bands, square and contra dancing, African drumming, bluegrass, and children's entertainers are a few of the highlights. The event is free and open to the public. Celebrants are encouraged to use Metro Bus (GEORGE), walk, or, if driving, park at least two blocks from the event site to avoid congestion. For further information click on www.tinnerhill.org or call the Tinner Hill Heritage Foundation office at (703) 241-4109. The event is co-sponsored by the City of Falls Church. A complete listing of entertainers and further information will be featured in upcoming Falls Church News-Press, a sponsor of the event.
